NEW BEACH PLANS . . . Supervisor Burton W. Chace and County Engineer John A. Lambie beam smiles of approval after the Board of Supervisors voted $600,000 in funds for a beach erosion control program this week. The program, which will involve Redondo, Clifton, and Torrance beaches, will create nearly 45 acres of new useable beach. Total cost of the program is $2.4 million, to be shared by the county, state, and federal governments. Nearly $8 million in new land will be created.

CREA Drive For Names Continues

Local supporters of the initiative constitutional amendment aimed at nullifying the Rumford Housing Act and similar legislation will continue to gather signatures on petitions, according to Del Wright, president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors.

Wright said the new drive is aimed at providing another 250,000 signatures to insure success of the drive.

The first deadline was Feb. 5, but after a check of signatures, sponsors will be given an additional 40 days to gather signatures for a supplemental filing.

Improvements Completed in Carson Area

Improvements on 223rd Street from Vermont Avenue to Figueroa Street have been completed, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

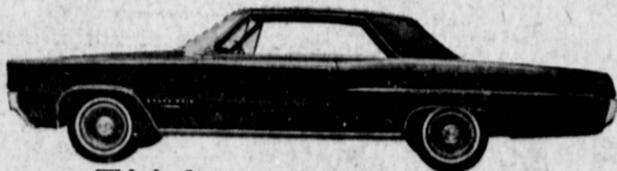

The segment of roadway was widened and resurfaced to increase traffic volume from 10,000 to 32,000 vehicles per day.

In announcing the improvement, Chace also noted authorization of projects on 220th Street, Acarus Avenue, and Vera Street. The Board of Supervisors has allocated $3,700 for the work.

Real Estate Commissioner To Speak in Area Tomorrow

Milton G. Gordon, Real Estate Commissioner for California since January, 1963, will address the Democratic Luncheon Club at the Tasman Sea in San Pedro tomorrow, speaking on "The Position of the Real Estate Commissioner with Respect to the Rumford Act."

Before his appointment as Real Estate Commissioner in 1963, Gordon spent 14 years as a real estate broker in the Westwood area, and was active in the Los Angeles and Beverly Hills Realty Boards and in the National Institute of Real Estate Brokers.

In addition to his duties as Real Estate Commissioner, Gordon has recently been appointed administrator of the Business and Commerce Agency, and as such is a member of Governor Brown's cabinet. He heads an agency of 14 departments, divisions, and commissions, including the departments of Professional and Vocational Standards, Insurance, Banking, and Alcoholic Beverage Control; and the divisions of Real Estate, Corporations, and Savings and Loan.

Walter Harvey of San Pedro is chairman of tomorrow's luncheon program. "This should be one of our most interesting meetings," Harvey said.

The Democratic Luncheon Club is comprised of business and professional men from the Southwest and Harbor areas.

Audio-Visual Experts Set ECC Meeting

An all-day session of audio-visual experts from school districts in Southern California is planned for Feb. 19 at El Camino College. Dick Schwarzman, ECC coordinator and conference host, has announced.

The group, known as the "Audio-Visual Nubors," will spend the morning session evaluating the experiences and ideas which improve the ability of instructors to use audio-visual materials in the classroom.

During the afternoon session, the group will tour the recently completed audio-visual center in the new communications complex at El Camino.
